

ILS
PAS

Institute of Law Studies
Polish Academy of Sciences
Nowy Świat 72
00-330 Warsaw, Poland

Law and Political Economy – Central and Eastern European Perspectives

21 March 2022

- 9:00-9:10 Opening and welcome
- 9:10-10:10 Keynote Europe's crisis politics and Europe's law by prof. Christian Joerges (Hertie School of Government) followed by a Q&A
- 10.10-10.20 break
- 10.20-11.50 Panel I – Economic and non-economic uses of the law
Chair: dr Mateusz Grochowski (Institute of Law Studies PAN/Max Planck Institute for Comparative and International Private Law)
- dr Michael Denga (Humboldt University) - Common Market – Common Values
discussant: prof. Marija Bartl (University of Amsterdam) mgr Wojciech Lewandowski (Institute of Law Studies PAN) - EU sport policy and its entanglement with neoliberalism – finally the finish line or yet another lap?
discussant: Jan Zgliński (London School of Economics) dr Joanna Kusiak (University of Cambridge) Radically legal: struggles for the socialization of housing in Berlin
discussant: dr Agnieszka Smoleńska (Institute of Law Studies PAN)
- 11.50-12.00 break
- 12.00-13.00 Panel II– Law and political economy in corporate governance and finance
Chair: dr Agnieszka Smoleńska (Institute of Law Studies PAN/European Banking Institute)
- dr Wojciech Kobyliński (Institute of Law Studies PAN) - Can banks save the planet from the climate catastrophe? Considerations on the impact of the EU regulations regarding ESG and sustainable finance on tackling climate changes discussant: dr Jens van 't Klooster (University of Leuven/University of Amsterdam) dr Justyna Dąbrowska (Kardynał Stefan Wyszyński University) - Growth or development, welfare or well-being? Considerations on the corporate interest in the light of new institutional economics.
discussant: Jacek Dybiński (Max Planck Institute Luxembourg)
- 13.00-14.30 break
-

ILS
PAS

Institute of Law Studies
Polish Academy of Sciences
Nowy Świat 72
00-330 Warsaw, Poland

14.30-16.30 Panel III – Law and political economy in the age of populism

Chair: dr Damjan Kukovec (Judge of the General Court, tbc)

prof. Maciej Bernatt (University of Warsaw) - Political Economy of Antitrust. Illiberal Influence of Populist Government on Competition Law System

discussant: dr Peter Cserne (University of Aberdeen)

prof. Marton Varju (Institute for Legal Studies, Hungarian Academy of Sciences) - Changing tides? The law and political economy of State-owned-enterprises in contemporary Hungary discussant: dr Liviu Damşa (University of Warwick)

dr Mátyás Bencze (Institute for Legal Studies, Hungarian Academy of Sciences) - A Political-Economic Analysis of Hungarian Adjudication

discussant: dr Ioannis Kampourakis (University of Rotterdam)

prof. Kati Cseres (University of Amsterdam) - Instrumentalization of consumer law in CEECs for populist politics: a citizen-consumer perspective

discussant: dr Mateusz Grochowski (Institute of Law Studies PAN/Max Planck Institute for Comparative and International Private Law)

16.30-16.45 break

16.45-17.45 Panel IV - Market organization in a law and economic perspective –
Organizacja rynku w perspektywie prawno-ekonomicznej (panel in Polish)

Chair: dr Magdalena Małecka (Aarhus University & University of Helsinki)

mgr Piotr Marciniak (Institute of Law Studies PAN) – Samorząd gospodarczy jako projekt interdyscyplinarny. Wielowymiarowy charakter instytucji

discussant: Jan Winczorek (University of Warsaw)

mgr Magdalena Konopka (Warsaw School of Economics) – Ekonomiczna analiza prawa jako narzędzie badania prawnych implikacji koncepcji sharing economy

discussant: dr Joanna Mazur (University of Warsaw)