

LICENSE AGREEMENT
(“AGREEMENT”)

Concluded in Warsaw on.....between:

- 1) Instytut Nauk Prawnych PAN, Nowy Swiat St. 72, 00-330 Warsaw (the “Publisher”), represented by its director, [_____], and
- 2) [_____], domiciled _____ in
[_____] (the “Author”).

1. The Author declares that he holds unlimited proprietary copyright to the article entitled
“[_____]” (the “Work”). The author also declares that the Work is of original character and has not been published before.
2. The author also declares that the Work is of an original character and has not been published before.
3. The Author declares that he is entitled to grant a license to the Publisher, as provided in this Agreement, and that the use of the Work by the Publisher, as provided by this Agreement, does not violate any personal and other rights of any third party.

1. The Author grants the Publisher with a non-exclusive CC-BY licence (see: <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/legalcode.en>) to use the Work in the following fields:
 - a) preparation, fixation and reproduction of the Work;
 - b) reproduction, transmission and distribution of the Work, either for free or in exchange for remuneration, as a part of a print or electronic version of the Polish Yearbook of International Law (the “Yearbook”), in whole or part, on CD, magnetic, optical, or any other form of electronic media, including electronic transmission to on-line terminals and computer networks for searching, displaying, and printing.
2. The Author gives her/his consent to reproduce, transmit, and distribute bibliographic abstracts and/or citations and abstracts of the Work and indexes prepared by the Publisher or already published in the Polish Yearbook of International Law and authorises the Publisher, or any entity that will receive a sublicense that is referred to in paragraph 2(4), to use such bibliographic abstracts, and/or citations and abstracts of the Work and indexes.

3. The licence, which is referred to in paragraph 2(1) is granted for the whole period of proprietary copyright to the Work. The Publisher and the Author may each terminate this Agreement after the lapse of a ten-year period from the date of its conclusion, subject to a one-year termination notice with effect at the end of the calendar year following the year in which notice is given.
4. The Publisher shall be entitled to grant further licences (sublicenses) to use the Work as provided in paragraphs 2(1) and (2), both to national and foreign entities.
5. The Author shall not receive any copy of the electronic database in which the Work will be included. The Author shall receive one copy of the issue of the Yearbook in which the Work is published.
6. In case of subsequent publication by the Author of the Work or a piece which is substantially similar to the Work in any other journal or as a part of a collective work or any other type of publication, including electronic publications, the Author shall be obliged to indicate in visible manner information about the prior publication of the Work in a specific issue of the Yearbook.

The Author shall not receive any remuneration for the license, which is referred to in paragraph 3.

§ 4

On the basis of Art. 21(1) and in connection with Art. 21(2) of the Act of 4 February 1994 on copyrights and related rights, the Author waives her/his rights to intermediation of any organization of collective management of copyrights.

§ 5

1. All correspondence relating to the execution of this Agreement shall be made by registered mail and directed to the addresses indicated at the beginning of this Agreement.
2. If any part of this Agreement shall be considered by an authorised body as null and void, other parts of the Agreement shall be deemed to be still valid and binding upon the Publisher and the Author.
3. This Agreement shall be governed by Polish law. Any dispute arising from this Agreement shall be decided by the courts determined on the basis of the seat of the Publisher.
4. The Agreement was executed in two identical copies, one for the Publisher and one for the Author.
